

So many stories, so little time!

Hello my lovelies!

How are things where you are? You guys staying safe? It's hot as sin here in Spain, well, maybe not as fun though. LOL. Sin is fun, after all, isn't it? ;) I'm pleased to report I've been swimming everyday but I'm still sleeping terribly, ROFL. But hey, what am I supposed to do? Ignore my characters when they insist I write them?

I think this pandemic, as horrendous as it is, and as much as the news devastates me every time I tune in, for me, it may have stopped me from having a personal meltdown... With all my trips cancelled, I have been able to just dive into my stories head first and the words seem to be flowing out of me. With all the conventions I had scheduled, though I'm beyond gutted that I won't be able to meet you guys, (sobs) it means I have time to write. And with two books dropping this month, two next month, and then another 400,000 words planned before the end of the year... yup, it's crazy. But I'm floving the creative process. Hopefully you'll flove the stories just as much as me, and fingers crossed, they'll be a little light in the bleakness of our current situation. <3

Wolf Child has been out just over three weeks now, and Moon Child is FINISHED. Wooooot! I'm sooo humbled by your reactions to book one. You guys have been loving it and I have to admit that it fuels my inspiration! Moon Child is a little different than my usual RH, ya know, what with the heroes being brothers lol, so no group scenes, but I have a feeling you guys will fall for all the characters regardless. :D

In other news, Steel is coming to get you! ARC (advanced review copies) readers are loving his and Stone's story. You can preorder to your kindles OR order your paperbacks right now on Amazon. There are only FIVE days to goooooo. OMG, sooo soon yet sooo far, I know!

I am so excited to get you to read this one, that I decided to give you a part of the first chapter to get your engines revved for next Tuesday!

Chapter 1 - Steel - A Dark And Dirty Sinners' MC Series

---

So what did you think? It's gonna be a good one, isn't it? Their troubled past is only part of the story here... The rest? Explosive.

I'm currently working on Filthy Dark and am about halfway there with 45K words written. I have to say, switching between all these universes keeps me on my toes, but I always enjoy going back to the Five Points' world. These boys, or I should really say these Filthy Feckers, truly know how to get my creative juices flowing. :P

Ooh, while I remember, something new is happening in my Diva reader group on Facebook, my darlings! We've started a Book Club so you can read some of my back list with fellow Divas and discuss everything and anything about it. Check it out in the EVENTS in the group. First up is Hotter Than Hades and the discussion will take place on Sunday both via Zoom and on the event. I'm sure you ladies will have loads of fun!

You can read Hotter Than Hades, like all my books, on KU.

Stay safe and sane!

Much love,
Serena
xoxo

My name was Stone, and I had a rep for being a stone in temperament, but I wasn't like that.

Not really.

He was the reason I'd changed, shifting from someone who was open and loving to cold and hard with everyone except my patients.

I knew what it was like to hurt because of this man, but I also knew what it was to feel.

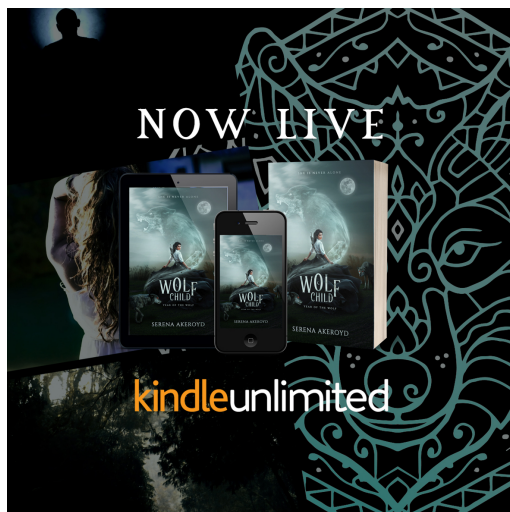

Read Stone and Steel's second chance romance in the 4th instalment of the Dark and Dirty Sinners' MC Series.

SABINA

I'm human.
They're... not.
I'm afraid.
They're not.
We're mated. We're whole.
And together? We're going to change the Pack.
Forever.

Violence thrust me into this world.

My past defined me.

I was on the run. Constantly evading an adolescence loaded with heartbreak and fear, and then the end came.

But with it?

I found a new beginning.

Three mates.

Three Alphas.

All mine.

To have.

To hold.

Their protection gives me a future.
Their love gives me wings...

But the best intentions can still lead us to hell, and for the first time in my life, I have a future worth fighting for. Only, that doesn't take away my living demons.

When they come for me, which they will, I'm no longer alone.

But can I survive if fate has given me an expiration date I avoided a decade ago?
