Chapter 2

Aoife

PRESENT - CHRISTMAS DAY

"Do you know how much I love you?"

A smile danced on my lips. "I mean, I could guess. But are we talking metric or imperial here? You know I'm a baker, Finn. Be specific."

Before I could tease him much more, he rocked his hips, thrusting harder into me until my eyes fluttered to a close.

No longer was I thinking about inches or centimeters, just that my husband filled me so full that I wasn't sure where he ended and I started.

A groan escaped me as he thrust back inside me, doing this thing with his hips that had my G-spot screeching to life in a wonderfully rude awakening.

My hands dug into his shoulders and I moaned out a promise, "No more teasing, no more teasing."

"Definitely no teasing the father-to-be," he growled in my ear, sucking on my earlobe in a way that tickled rather than sent shivers down my spine.

My moan morphed into a laugh. "What about the mother-to-be? She deserves an orgasm," I retorted, my words broken as he lived up to the task and moved a little harder, a lot faster.

"You deserve something that's for sure," he rumbled, dropping his mouth now so that it was hovering over my lips.

I fought fire with fire because with a kiss, that was the only place Finn let me attempt to conquer him. As I explored him, savored him, reveled in him, I felt the second something switched on.

Gone were the teasing strokes, and in its place, I felt his tension start to brew as he tugged on my bottom lip.

“Mine,” he ground out.

My pussy clenched around his dick at the declaration, a declaration that always had me squirming and celebrating.

This hard man, this mobster, this brilliant mind, this beautifully scarred soul—he called me his.
