BAD BOYS YOU WANT TO TAKE HOME

The Oracle releases in just one week!

Hello Lovelies!

Just one little week to go and you can read the conclusion of The Revelation Duet in book two: The Oracle. It's sexy and thrilling but somehow different from what I usually write. I am so proud of this book and of Hunter and Aurora! And I have a few surprises for you in The Oracle. Easter Eggs to make your mind stir a bit... You know me, I love to torture you on the way to a happily ever after!

So to tide you over for those seven days... I have two things for you!

First... Make sure you scroll down, cause I have chapter one of The Oracle ready to tease you...

And second... A dear friend of mine just released his solo debut novel. You're used to hearing his sexy sultry voice as Luciu (and so many other male characters...) but did you know that Joe Arden can write?

The Chameleon Effect released this week and I have only good things to say about it. And the audiobook, my goodness!! Be sure to grab it if you are in need of some Joe in your ears... Chapter twenty-five...that's all I'm saying. ;) :P

I'm back in the UK and the freakin' airline lost my luggage. I am not a happy bunny!!

Until then... stay safe!
Much love,
Serena xox

The Oracle

Chapter One

Aurora

“Para bellum, soru.”

For an ancient family like mine, one that originated from Sicilian royalty, a motto like, ‘Prepare for war,’ was fitting. I just hadn’t expected to hear it uttered from my baby brother’s lips this morning. Not without his usual glib delivery.

“Keep on driving, bitch. Don’t stop until I say so,” a random fuck had snarled at me before I’d heard Custanzu’s warning as I settled in my car.

That sweet, sweet serenade had been compounded by the digging of the tip of a gun into my spine through the soft cushion of the driver’s seat.

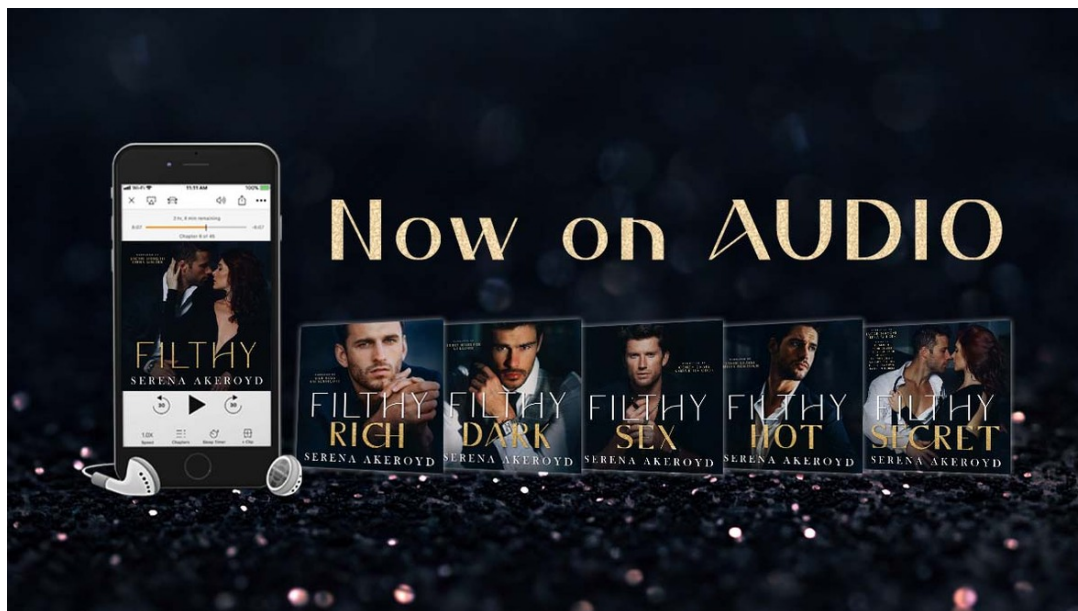

The wielder of said gun hadn’t identified himself as belonging to a particular faction, and because I was Aurora Valentini, I had a lot of people who disliked me so it would have been helpful if he had declared his allegiance to whichever penny-ante organization he belonged.

THE CHAMELEON EFFECT BY JOE ARDEN

The Chameleon Effect

by Joe Arden

Lights. Camera. Action...

I've got everything it takes to make it in Tinseltown: confidence, charisma, and a killer chin.

Now all I need is a chance. But Los Angeles is full of hot, young hunks, and talent might not be enough to separate me from the cookie-cutter crowd.

Well, you know what they say: fake it till you make it.
