BAD BOYS YOU WANT TO TAKE HOME

PREORDER TODAY!

Hello Lovelies!

So I did a thing... but before I tell you what that is let me tell you how Things Left Unsaid came to be.

About the time when I was working on End Game, I had decided that I'd try my hand at pitching ideas to publishers.

Now, when you do this, you need to write a synopsis of your story and then also sample chapters of the book you either have written or intend to write. Part of those chapters was the h and H's meet/cute... that took place in a lake. When Anne (my EA but also my editor) read those chapters, she begged me to write their book. Not in the future. Not if a publisher picked it up. Not years ahead. But now! And she wouldn't let it go!

With how my mind works, I wrote End Game, met Cole. Then wrote Cole's story and somehow, the hero from that 'pitch' merged into his older brother Colt... The rest, as they say, is history ...

Now, why am I telling you all this? Because of that thing I did!

You can read the first two-and-a-half chapters of Things Left Unsaid right now! Which includes this iconic meet or shall I say _RE_meet/cute! Download here now!

But I also did another thing! The Pigeon Creek Herald is the newspaper of, you guessed it, Pigeon Creek. And you can already go and dig and read about some of what's happening in PC, but also what's for sale, and a few other pieces of gossip. It's your first source of all PC news! <3

There might even be exclusive merch on there for sale one day soon... nudge nudge, wink wink.

ARCs and ALCs have gone out for TLU and the reviews are slowly trickling in... The moment it'll hit your hands is so close I can almost taste it! I hope you're excited about TLU. I truly am, and your buzz and my buzz just feed off on one another and make me a very happy bunny!

I wanted to clarify something too - just because I'm working on other projects right now, does not mean that I've abandoned my beloved mafia books. I'm well aware that Stan and Dmitri and Maxim need their stories to be told. However, I released close to three dozen books over the pandemic. I'm not burned out - YET. Exploring these new genres is helping me prevent that.

You've read enough of my books to know how my brain works - a change is as good as a rest. Or so my nanna used to say and I stand by that.

So, this isn't au revoir to my mafia series, just hasta luego until my muse wants to cooperate. <3

And yes, End Game and Silenced are coming to audio. I just don't have dates yet.

Until next time, happy reading/listening!
